Today's Scripture Text:

Luke 9:57-62 NIV

⁵⁷ As they were walking along the road, a man said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go."
⁵⁸ Jesus replied, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head." ⁵⁹ He said to another man, "Follow me." But the man replied, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." ⁶⁰ Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God." ⁶¹ Still another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but first let me go back and say good-bye to my family." ⁶² Jesus replied, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God."

The Life and Legacy of Sister Edith Hodgson

In the early morning hours of July 27, 2022, the Lord called His servant Edith Vivian Hodgson Home. Through the years Sister Edith proved herself to be a faithful and energetic servant in many areas, amongst others – just to name a few – as a Sunday school teacher to the kids and later on to the teens, kids' club coordinator, VBS Coordinator, and Missions Committee Coordinator. Even though she was advancing in years, it did not deter her from staying active for the Lord! Most recently she was the engine behind the scenes in reactivating the Ladies' Fellowship, LaFem.

We thank the Lord for allowing Sister Edith to accomplish His purposes in His church, in her generation, and we have no doubt that this will bear fruit in God's kingdom throughout all eternity.

May the Lord allow Sister Edith's legacy to inspire the next generation of servants in our church.

To Elder John and family members we would like to say thank you for sharing your beloved Edith with us. May the God of all Comfort console both you and our church family in the days and weeks ahead.
