2 Corinthians 7:8-12

Message by Pastor Norman Browne

"New Testament Repentance"

Closing Song
Benediction

Today's Scripture Text:

2 Corinthians 7:8-12 NET

⁸ For even if I made you sad by my letter, I do not regret having written it (even though I did regret it, for I see that my letter made you sad, though only for a short time). ⁹ Now I rejoice, not because you were made sad, but because you were made sad to the point of repentance. For you were made sad as God intended, so that you were not harmed in any way by us. ¹⁰ For sadness as intended by God produces a repentance that leads to salvation, leaving no regret, but worldly sadness brings about death. ¹¹ For see what this very thing, this sadness as God intended, has produced in you: what eagerness, what defense of yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what deep concern, what punishment! In everything you have proved your-selves to be innocent in this matter. ¹² So then, even though I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did wrong, or on account of the one who was wronged, but to reveal to you your eagerness on our behalf before God.

😊 Humor 😊

A mother came home from shopping and found her newly baked pie dug out crudely from the center. The crime tool – a gooey spoon – lay in the sink. Crumbs were all over the kitchen counter and floor.

She called her son into the kitchen. “Peter,” she said sternly, “you promised me you wouldn’t touch that pie before dinner.” Peter hung his head.

“And I promised you I’d spank you if you did,” she continued.

Peter brightened. “Now that I’ve broken my promise,” he offered, “I think it’ll be all right for you to break yours, too!”

HAVE A BLESSED WEEK!
